DRESS CODE

Everyone at Phyllis Court Club is required to be suitably dressed while using the Club premises under Bye-Law 38.

Dress Code	Definition	Where applicable
Casual	Denim jeans (not distressed), shorts, tracksuits and trainers are permitted.	Terrace  7am - 6.30pm: Orangery, Bar and Lounge
Smart Casual	A collared shirt, turtle or roll neck. No denim or sportswear (including shorts, track suits and trainers.)	Thames Room Sunday Lunch  After 6.30pm: Orangery, Bar, Lounge and Riverside Pavilion
Smart Relaxed	Ties are not compulsory and jackets may be removed. Smart denim jeans are allowed. Sportswear, trainers and t-shirts are not permitted. The dress code in the rest of the Club will remain unchanged and therefore those who choose to wear denim will not be permitted in the clubhouse after 6.30pm apart from when traveling to or from Cromwell's.	Cromwell's Fine Dining
Smart	A tailored jacket, lounge suit, dinner suit or blazer preferably with a tie (or cravat). Ladies may wear smart trousers.	Specified Club events

No open-toed sandals for gentlemen.

General Etiquette

Coats or jackets are not to be hung over the chairs or sofas. Hats should not be worn inside the Club House.

It is the responsibility of Members to ensure that they and their guests are aware of the Club's Dress Code and to comply with it. Members responsible for children and young persons on the premises should ensure that they interpret the dress code sensibly and with due consideration to all Members.

Functions and Events

For Club functions and Henley Royal Regatta week specific Dress Codes will be set out within the accompanying paperwork.
