DRESS CODE

DRESS TO IMPRESS

The dress code for Henley Royal Regatta is a long-established tradition. The event is one of the highlights of the social calendar, and the dress code allows guests to participate fully in this occasion, which has become as much about the fashion as the rowing.

LADIES

Ladies are kindly reminded that formal daywear is a requirement at this prestigious event. Dresses and skirts should be of modest length with the hemline falling on the knee or longer. While it is not a requirement, it is customary for ladies to wear hats or fascinators. Ladies are not permitted to wear jeans, shorts or trousers of any kind.

GENTLEMEN

The traditional Henley Royal Regatta attire is a blazer and tie or cravat, with chinos or flannels. Otherwise a lounge suit or sports jacket are acceptable, with a tie or cravat.

The wearing of boaters or panamas is encouraged but not compulsory.

Please bring the dress code to the attention of your guests, to ensure that the standards are maintained and to avoid the possibility of the embarrassment of a guest being refused admission.

THE CHARITY ACTION GROUP AT PHYLLIS COURT

You are invited to partake in our Charity Action Group (CAG) Champagne Raffle and Silent Auction for our 2019 chosen local charities. The CAG is the charitable arm of Phyllis Court Club, run by Members.

You could win the magnum of Champagne or a luxury prize. Previous silent auction prizes have included: a luxury stay in Glitter Bay Barbados, a US Masters Badge, and a Private Box at Royal Ascot.

FURTHER INFORMATION

ARRIVAL/DEPARTURE

We recommend guests arrive for coffee and petit fours at 11.00 but hosts may arrive from 10.00 if they so wish. It would be appreciated if the box could be vacated by 18.00 please.

CAR PARKING

Passes will be issued in accordance with the box size and will roughly equate to half the number of anticipated guests. For example, a box of 24 receives 12 passes, one of which will be a host badge that allows one car to park in the forecourt of the Club, with the other cars parking in the Paddock. Additional car parking spaces maybe purchased for £25 each.

SIGNAGE

If you would like to display your company name on the door of your box, please let us know and we will arrange your signage.
